

YOUR CELEBRATION, BEAUTIFULLY ORGANIZED

Twenty-seven pages of good-vibe planning, original printable games and party ideas people can actually choose to enjoy.

START HERE

A party that feels like them

No forced fun, no embarrassing games and no schedule that leaves no room to hang out.

01

Ask for the vibe

Decide together whether this feels cozy, creative, energetic, dressed-up, outdoorsy or completely low-key.

02

Choose the people

Plan a guest count, access needs, pickup boundaries and a social setting that feels comfortable.

03

Pick one anchor

One movie, creative station, spa setup, food experience or backyard activity gives the night shape.

04

Leave optional space

Keep games and photos opt-in. Conversation, quiet time and simply hanging out all count.

05

Protect the good parts

Set clear boundaries, respect photo consent and avoid turning the party into a performance.

THE TEEN-PARTY RULE

The best plan makes it easy to join in - and just as easy to step back.

01 | THE VIBE

The one-page teen party brief

Get the real preferences down before anyone buys a theme.

THE NON-NEGOTIABLE BOUNDARY OR PREFERENCE

02 | THE VIBE

Find the energy, not the theme

Circle, highlight or annotate the words that actually fit.

01

COZY

Soft lighting, blankets, favorite snacks, an easy movie and room to breathe.

02

CREATIVE

Craft table, disposable cameras, simple art prompts and a playlist.

03

ENERGETIC

Backyard movement, a friendly tournament and a flexible snack station.

04

DRESSED-UP

A simple color story, dinner details, mirror photos and one strong moment.

05

LOW-KEY

A small guest list, familiar people, food delivery and zero forced schedule.

06

OUTDOORS

Fresh air, shade, blankets, portable food and a real weather backup.

OUR TOP TWO VIBE WORDS

ONE THING WE ABSOLUTELY DO NOT WANT

03 | THE PEOPLE

Guest list, comfort and boundaries

Check access needs privately and make room for different social batteries.

GUEST	INVITED	RSVP	DIETARY / ACCESS NOTES

BEFORE THE PARTY

- ☐ Confirm parent / guardian details
- ☐ Agree on start + finish
- ☐ Ask about food needs
- ☐ Check step-free access

DURING THE PARTY

- ☐ Offer a quiet space
- ☐ Ask before sharing photos
- ☐ Make games optional
- ☐ Respect pickup arrangements

04 | THE BUDGET

Spend on the parts that matter

Put the budget beside the experience you actually want.

MAKE THE TRADE

Would you rather spend on a stronger shared activity or more decorations? Choose once.

05 | THE FLOW

A timeline with room to breathe

Arrival, one shared moment and space to settle in is enough.

TIME	MOMENT	WHAT IS OPTIONAL	WHO HANDLES IT

ARRIVAL / WELCOME WINDOW

PICKUP / QUIET FINISH

PROTECT SOCIAL SPACE

Allow unscheduled time before or after the anchor activity. That is often the favorite part.

06 | THE SETTING

Rooms, zones and good flow

The right setup gives people more than one comfortable way to participate.

MAP THE WELCOME AREA, SNACK STATION, ACTIVITY, SEATING AND QUIET ZONE

A large rectangular area filled with a grid of small, light purple dots, intended for mapping the event space.

GOOD VIBE CHECK

Skip anything that makes a guest the joke, records them without consent or creates social pressure.

Photos are an invitation. Nobody owes the camera a performance.

01

THE EASY MIRROR

A clear mirror, good light and an entirely optional photo moment.

02

THE DETAIL SHOT

Photograph the cake, table, shoes, playlist or a favorite small detail.

03

THE FRIEND FRAME

Ask first, offer to retake and respect an immediate no.

04

THE BLUR / FLASH

Creative lights or motion can create atmosphere without showing faces.

BEFORE YOU SHARE

- ☐ Ask the people in the photo
- ☐ Confirm public vs private
- ☐ Remove location details
- ☐ Respect a changed mind

OPTIONAL PROMPTS

- ☐ Favorite party detail
- ☐ Hands / shoes / colors
