

Teen Birthday Planner + Games Pack

A 25-page workbook with party planning sheets plus original, low-pressure printable games and challenges.

PLAN	DECIDE	CELEBRATE
------	--------	-----------

A teen party should feel organized without feeling managed. This pack centers the plan on the activity, guest dynamics and easy social flow.

How to use this pack

Choose the vibe and guest count first. Then choose one anchor activity. Use the game pages as optional tools, not a forced agenda. Teens usually need space to talk, snack and move between activities.

- Ask the celebrant which activities are actually welcome
- Give guests an easy opt-out option
- Avoid games that embarrass or single people out
- Keep food and water accessible
- Have one backup activity ready, not five

13 • Photo scavenger hunt

Give each group the same list. No trespassing, unsafe stunts, strangers, or embarrassing photos.

- Something in the party colors
- A perfect snack close-up
- A group shadow
- Something shaped like a heart
- A creative shoe photo
- A reflection
- The funniest safe object in the room
- A photo that looks like an album cover
- A dramatic before-and-after pose
- A tiny detail nobody noticed
- A group photo using only hands
- A color-matched object
- A candid laugh
- The best decorated corner
- A photo that tells the story of the night

15 • Would You Rather

Use these as conversation prompts while people arrive, eat or wait for an activity.

- Have unlimited snacks or unlimited decorations?
- Host a party at home or somewhere new?
- Choose every song or choose every food?
- Have perfect weather or a perfect cake?
- Do a photo challenge or a trivia game?
- Plan a surprise or know every detail?
- Have one huge activity or five mini activities?
- Wear one color or one pattern?
- Take photos all night or put phones away for an hour?
- Do a movie marathon or game tournament?
- Have a breakfast party or late-night party?
- Decorate the whole room or one amazing photo corner?
- Choose pizza forever or dessert forever?
- Have a tiny party with your closest friends or a big mixed group?
- Get one meaningful gift or lots of tiny surprises?
- Make your own food or decorate your own desserts?
- Have a themed dress code or no dress code?
- Plan everything a month early or improvise the day before?
- Celebrate indoors with perfect setup or outdoors with perfect weather?
- Replay your best birthday or design a completely new one?

16 • Emoji movie challenge

Write movie titles you know your group will recognize, then translate each into 2-5 emoji clues. Keep the answers on a separate page.

Your challenge board

Create your own clues so the game matches your group.

17 • Mini tournament scoreboard

Works for cards, ping-pong, console games, cup stacking or another safe activity.

PLAYER / TEAM	ROUND 1	ROUND 2	ROUND 3	TOTAL

18 • One-minute challenge planner

Choose short tasks that use ordinary objects and do not involve risky stunts.

Challenge list

Write the task and materials before the party.

19 • Party photo prompts

Use as optional photo ideas rather than a mandatory pose list.

- Everyone looking away
- Only shoes in frame
- A snack flat-lay
- A photo through a mirror
- One-color group pose
- Best candid laugh
- Hands-only cheers
- A photo with motion blur
- The party setup before guests arrive
- The same spot at the end of the night
- A tiny detail close-up
- A fake magazine cover pose
- A photo from floor level
- A photo from above
- A silhouette
- A group shadow

20 • Conversation cards

Cut into strips if you want a low-pressure arrival activity.

- What is something you want to learn this year?
- What is your perfect no-plans Saturday?
- What snack disappears fastest at a party?
- What song instantly changes your mood?
- What fictional place would be fun to visit?
- What is one tiny thing that makes a day better?
- What is the best birthday food?
- What trend are you ready to retire?
- What is one skill everyone should learn?
- What is a hobby you would try if supplies were free?
- What is the best group activity?
- What is one place you want to visit?
- What makes a party feel comfortable?
- What is one thing worth saving money for?
- What is your favorite way to spend an evening?
- What is a harmless opinion you will defend forever?

21 • Game supplies checklist

Keep each activity in its own bag or box.
